

MEDIA RELEASE

For immediate release: September 28th, 2020

The Gotta Minute Film Festival 2020: Oct. 5th – 11th

Public media art festival on public transit, public venues, & online in Edmonton & Calgary

Gotta Minute is Western Canada's first film fest for Commuters proudly brought to you by PATTISON Onestop and The Film and Video Arts Society of Alberta (FAVA).

This October 5th-11th watch for our festival in Edmonton and Calgary transit systems where digital screens will light up with a program of One-Minute Silent Short Films from around the world – every 5 minutes! You can expect all genres: live action, documentary, creative non-fiction, animation, and experimental. Don't miss this on-the-go festival in public spaces or online: gottaminutefilmfestival.com

We are excited to have returning and new public venues that will show the entire festival in addition to the LRT and CTrain platforms: you can catch Gotta Minute before a movie at Metro Cinema and at TIX On The Square downtown.

By following FAVA's social media channels Twitter (@FAVA_Love), Instagram (@FAVA_Love), and Facebook (fb.com/FilmAndVideoArtsAlberta) you can stay updated with festival news and join the discussion.

FAVA is a not-for-profit charitable society and artist run centre that serves our membership of independent film, video, and media artists. The Gotta Minute Film Festival is in its eighth year and includes films from India, Thailand, France, the USA, and many Albertan films to delight audiences on-the-go.

Gotta Minute is a celebration of public art on public transit in public space. A gem of a fest for one and all, big and small, proudly brought to you by PATTISON Onestop & The Film and Video Arts Society of Alberta (FAVA).

-30-

Media contact: Sylvia Douglas, Director of Marketing, Communications, and Events

The Film and Video Arts Society of Alberta

780-993-9632 (cell) or communications@fava.ca