

FILM AND VIDEO ARTS
SOCIETY · ALBERTA

CALL FOR INSTRUCTOR – INTRO TO SCREENWRITING

The Film and Video Arts Society of Alberta (FAVA) is accepting applications for Class Instructor for the upcoming Intro to Screenwriting class.

This 10 week workshop-style class leads participants through the development of a one-hour teleplay, short form, or feature length script. Instruction will cover script formatting, story structure, character development, and all other essential elements of storytelling.

*Class Dates: Tuesdays 6:30 p.m. – 9p.m. at The Orange Hub (10045 156 Street NW)
February 15th – April 19th, 2022.*

Instructor must be available to teach or facilitate all of the classes, provide all handouts and facilitate the completion of participants' screenplays. Please note that this workshop is planned for in-person instruction but could change to online delivery to comply with COVID-19 policies and Alberta Health Services guidelines. Remuneration is $40 per teaching hour (30 teaching hours) and $40 per prep hour (30 prep hours), for a total of $2,400.

Qualifications:

- post-secondary education in creative writing, theatre, or equivalent experience
- proven experience as a playwright or screenwriter. Work that has been mounted/produced is preferred
- strong organizational skills; ability to prepare course outline, plan activities to meet learning objectives and stay on schedule
- teaching experience
- experience teaching online is considered an asset

Application submission date: October 31st, 2021

Please submit a cover letter and resume as a single PDF document.

Send applications digitally to:

Heather Noel, Director of Programming: programming@fava.ca