CALL FOR INSTRUCTOR – VIDEO KITCHEN

The Film and Video Arts Society of Alberta (FAVA) is accepting applications for Class Instructor for the upcoming Video Kitchen course.

Video Kitchen is one of FAVA's long-standing classes. It is a 12-class course that provides training in the basics of digital video production. Classes are comprised of a mixture of lecture based learning and hands on practical exercises. Outside of class time, each participant produces their own short four to six minute video using FAVA equipment.

Class Dates: Saturdays 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. at The Orange Hub (10045 156 Street NW) September 18th – December 11th, 2021, with no class October 9th.

Instructor must be available to teach or facilitate all of the classes, shoots and editing sessions, provide all handouts and facilitate the completion of all projects. Please note that this workshop is planned for in-person instruction but could change to online delivery to comply with COVID-19 policies and Alberta Health Services guidelines. Remuneration is $40 per teaching hour (48 teaching hours) and $40 per prep hour (48 prep hours), for a total of $3,840.

This course will have a Teaching Assistant, to be hired in consultation with the Instructor. Additionally, there is budget for four guest instructors, to be hired at the Instructor's discretion.

Qualifications:

- knowledge and experience in digital video production and post-production, including camera operating, cinematography, editing using premiere pro, and foundations of screenwriting
- post-secondary education in visual arts or film and video production, or equivalent experience
- strong organizational skills; ability to prepare course outline, plan activities to meet learning objectives, and stay on schedule
- teaching experience
- experience with online teaching would be an considered an asset

Successful applicants will be able to teach both the creative and technical sides of digital filmmaking.

Application submission date: July 26th, 2021
